Issue 2

It's almost here...

For 30 years now we have participated in the annual winter event known as Winter Carnival.

Our first sculpture was created by our friend Carl Brown who also created some of the drawings still used on our menus today.

Most years the Nielsens get together with employees and friends to come up with a sculpture that is humorous and simple as we don't quite have the time or talents to do professional ones like the one above. This was created a few years back by Jeff Weston, an award winner in local and International ice carving competitions.

Christin Ames came up with a prize winner that captured polar bears on ice with her artistic talents several years ago.

This year, we haven't a clue of what we'll do, so any ideas or volunteers would be appreciated!

Thursday Night Dinners at the LSH coming soon!

Colby Nielsen as the new program director at the Little Ski Hill has some great events coming up for the season.

One new offering will be dinners created by a variety local restaurant owners catered to the hill for the night.

You'll be able to enjoy night skiing or just watch the skiers come down the hill under the lights while enjoying great mountain cusine.

Prices will be between $10-15 per meal keeping it affordable for a unique dining experience.

Call Colby at the LSH for dates and reservations.

If you would like to host a dinner, please contact Melinda for open dates.

"It's great to see the tradition of family fun fill the lodge again"

Cantina events f.y.i.

It's locals time out in Rodrigos Cantina!

After the holidays folks are coming out, catching up with friends and getting a break from the kids too!

We always have specials going in the Cantina and once in a blue moon will have locals show up playing musical instruments and causing locals to move around on the dance floor!

Cabin fever hasn't set in yet, but stay tuned....

Weekends For the winter Rodrigos Cantina will be open at 2:30 on Sat. and Sunday. Watch for our Superbowl party which is one of the hottest in town. Melinda puts out a buffet for $7 that will knock your socks off!

Mondays Even though we don't have football, we still have those who just want the specials...so what the heck, we're still offering 3 Bar Tacos for $2.95 and $1 PBR pints.

Tuesdays we give away free shot glasses with any tequila shooter and if you're nice to the bartender...we have other freebies waiting for the asking!

Wednesday is still for the ladies...get that second House Margarita FREE!

Thursday is still date night! It's a good night to run away from those kids and pamper your someone special with a meal out. Let us do the work and you relax!

Friday is for locals! We offer up free apps from 5-6 p.m., Happy Hour and lots of people to mingle with! Come early to get a good seat.

Time to start thinking about Mexico...

View from our bungalow in a small hotel that we found south of Zihua...very secluded with deserted beaches.

...and feasting on fish...

Huatachango in Zihua

If you have been to Zihuatanejo, you'll recognize one of our favorite hideaways. Take a boat over for an afternoon of snorkeling, sunbathing and sipping Margaritas along with some of the best fish in Mexico.

We hope you like our newest issue and want to encourage you to send pictures.

Thanks to all of you for your continued support through the years, and especially in these tough economic times. We will try our best to not have to close too many hours during off season, but may have to, so please call and check hours before making a long trip here.

Gracias and Feliz Ano Nuevo!
